

Langley singer Tiffany Desrosiers will perform a free concert Sept. 26 at Colossus cinema to promote the opening of the feature film Fame.

In concert at Colossus

Fame may be fleeting, or it might last a lifetime.

But for two hours on Saturday afternoon, Fame will thrust Tiffany Desrosiers into the spotlight once again, when the Langley singer performs live at Colossus.

The free concert, which takes place in the theatre's lobby from 2- 4p.m. on Sept. 26, will promote the opening of the feature film, Fame, an updated version of the 1980 musical.

In 2007, Desrosiers was one of two B.C. performers plucked from music producer David Foster's Star Search competition to perform The Prayer during the An Evening with David Foster gala.

Desrosiers' self-titled CD is available online at cdbaby.com or at Esquires coffee house or the Wired Monk in Murrayville.
