Young Willoughby singing sensation Cole Armour, who entertained the business crowd at last year's Greater Langley Chamber of Commerce Christmas dinner, is a tough act to follow.

But Langley's own Tiffany Desrosiers is going to give it a try later this month, when the young entertainer who sang the song for the opening and closing ceremonies of the BC Summer Games takes to the stage.

The 23-year-old Murrayville singer and songwriter released her self-titled album last year, and this year made her presence known to thousands when she performed Because We Dream for the Games.

Desrosiers has shared the stage with acts such as David Foster, Ben Harper, Jackson Browne, Bobby Kimball (Toto), Loverboy, Colin James, Canadian Tenors, Jully Black, and Destino.

She is a versatile performer and has the rare talent to cross over and sing both classical and contemporary styles.

And without question, her performance at the chamber meeting promises to please.

This chamber dinner, where the H.D. Stafford Good Citizen of the Year award will also be presented, is set to occur on Tuesday, Dec. 14, at the Coast Hotel and Convention Centre.

"We are very excited about this year's holiday entertainment," said chamber president Milt Kruger.

In addition to the obvious entertainment components of the night, the chamber's thrown something a little fun and wacky into the mix.

Guests are encouraged to wear a tacky

Christmas sweater or tie – an addition that promises to amuse.

Tickets for the turkey dinner and evening are $45 for non-member, and $30 for chamber members, and available from the chamber office before next Friday, Dec. 10.
